

THE FUTURE OF THE FAIRFAX COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARIES

PLAN TO ATTEND the PUBLIC MEETING

Demonstrate your concern for the future of your library system

An ad hoc committee of the Fairfax County Public Library Board of Trustees is hosting a single public meeting to “discuss the future direction of the library based on input from stakeholders.”

This Communication and Evaluation Committee was created in the aftermath of the 9/11/2013 trustee vote to suspend the Library’s previous redirection plan, also known as “the beta plan.” This Committee will “make recommendations on the future direction of the library based on input from stakeholders.”

This single public meeting is being held near the Reston area.

Tuesday, June 3 at 7 pm

at the Oakton Library at 10304 Lynnhaven Place, Oakton, VA

Friends of the Reston
Regional Library